  3. Delivery limit: Buyer agrees that Seller shall have no obligation in any month or other specified period of time to sell or deliver to Buyer any quantities of products in excess of the quantity specified in The Agreement. At its sole discretion Seller may advise Buyer that additional quantities are available for sale by Seller to Buyer and at what price, if different from that set forth in The Agreement. In the event Buyer elects to purchase such additional quantities the terms and conditions of The Agreement not inconsistent with Seller's advice shall pertain to and govern the additional purchases. Buyer agrees that, except as may be required by law, Seller shall have no obligation in any month or other specified period or time to sell and deliver to Buyer quantities in excess in the quantities set forth in The Agreement even though quantities in excess of such quantities may have been sold and delivered to Buyer in any proceeding month or other specified period of time.

Unless otherwise expressly set forth in the Sales Agreement or Purchase Agreement, Seller reserves the right to change its prices to Buyer at any time with notice, whether or not received by Buyer. Buyer acknowledge and agrees that any such change in price shall not necessarily be predicated upon, pattern after, or bear any relationship to any price established by Seller, or any price change made by Seller, with respect to any other customer or class of trade not in the same classification as Buyer. Within 30 days from date of such notice from Seller, Buyer shall have the right to terminate its purchase obligations as to the quantities of product shifted to the new supply point. If such quantities shifted to a new supply point constitute all or substantially all of quantities to be purchased and/or sold under The Agreement, Buyer shall have the right to terminate The Agreement in its entirety.
